

The development of a heavily wooded area to create a special one off, state of the art residence. The building will utilise low carbon, smart technology for the lighting, sensory entertainment systems including automated room perimeter configurations to enable complete environment control